FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Statement on the state of the MIGOP

DATE: January 26, 2024

FROM: Ralph Rebandt for RNC Committeeman, Pastor Ralph Rebandt, former candidate for Michigan Governor, 2022

Given the unrest, confusion, and division in the MIGOP, I find it necessary to make a public statement. It would be easier for me not to, especially given I'm in an active campaign right now, but the stakes are too high and the damages too costly for our party.

Let me begin by saying that I believe there has been a deliberate, intentional, and well orchestrated plan to divide the conservatives of the MIGOP. What we're witnessing has less to do with one side or the other, one personality or the other, or even one plan or the other, although all of these have been strategically used as fuel for a pre-planned fire, but more to do with evil, power, and corruption, none of which knows any boundaries.

The silver lining is that evil eventually overplays its hand, and when truth shows up, the game is over.

I desire unity, but not at the expense of truth, and I don't believe we'll arrive at unity until we arrive at truth. The good thing about truth is that it's objective and absolute.

In examining the communications and documents in light of the MIGOP Bylaws and Roberts' Rules of Order, I believe that the actions at the January 6, 2024, meeting were not binding, and that Kristina Karamo is the legitimate chair of the MIGOP. Having said that, I am willing to have my conclusions challenged. We should all be willing to do that for the sake of truth.

Reconciliation always begins with truth, and always ends in forgiveness.

It would be a worthy goal for both sides to come together and seek out the true evildoers behind this catastrophic division before both sides fall in the race, and evil stands laughing at the finish line.

"Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints". Ephesians 6:10-18
